Sophia & her three daughters: Faith, Hope, and Love - Sept 17

These Saints were from Italy and contested for the Faith about the year 126, during the reign of the Emperor Hadrian. Faith was twelve years old, Hope, ten, and Love, nine; each was tormented and then beheaded, from the eldest to the youngest. Their mother Sophia mourned at their grave for three days, where she also fell asleep in peace; because of her courageous endurance in the face of her daughters' sufferings, she is also counted a martyr. The name Sophia means "wisdom" in Greek; as for her daughters' names, Faith, Hope, and Love (Charity), they are Pistis, Elpis, and Agape in Greek, and Vera, Nadezhda, and Lyubov in Russian.

Kontakion of Martyrs Sophia, Pistis, Elpis & Agape

Since Faith and Hope and Love were in truth sacred branches of ven'rable Sophia, the namesake of wisdom by grace they have shown all men that Greek wisdom is foolishness, and in contest they proved to be prizewinning victors; wherefore, they received a crown that never shall perish from Christ God, the Lord of all.

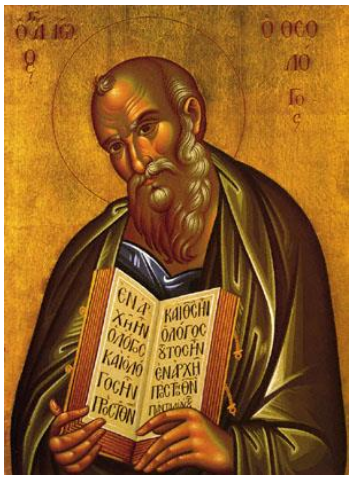
The Falling Asleep of St. John the Evangelist and Theologian-Sept 26



This Apostle was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and was the son of Zebedee and Salome, and the brother of James the elder. First a fisherman by trade, he became an Apostle and the beloved Disciple of Christ. Only he of all the Disciples followed Him even to the Cross, and was entrusted with the care of our Saviour's Mother, as it were another son to her, and a brother of Christ the Teacher. After this, he preached throughout Asia Minor, especially in Ephesus. When the second persecution against the Christians began in the year 96 during the reign of Domitian, he was taken in bonds to Rome, and there was cast into a vat filled to the brim with boiling oil. Coming forth therefrom unharmed, he was exiled to the island of Patmos, where he wrote the Book of Revelation. Returning again to Ephesus after the death of the tyrant, he wrote his Gospel (after the other Evangelists had already written theirs) and his three Catholic Epistles. In all, he lived ninety-five years and fell asleep in the Lord during the reign of Trajan in the year 100. He was called Theologian because he loftily expounded in his Gospel the theology of the inexpressible and eternal birth of the Son and Word of God the Father. It is for this cause that an eagle-a symbol of the Holy Spirit, as Saint Irenaeus says-is depicted in his icon, for this was one of the four symbolic living creatures that the Prophet Ezekiel saw (Ezek. 1:10).

Pastoral Message

Beloved Faithful:

As we begin the new liturgical year, I draw your attention to the words of St. Paul for reflection and inspiration. In his letter to the Philippians, he writes:

His state was divine, yet he did not cling to His equality with God. But He emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as we are, he was humbler, yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

What these words reveal is the mystery of God's love. It is a love which means that He who is divine, lives within our broken humanity not as a curse (Genesis 3.14-19) but as a blessing. His divine compassion makes it possible for us to face our sinful selves, because it transforms our broken human condition from a cause of despair into a source of hope.

My prayer is that we will enter into the new church year with this sense of hope in our hearts. This month, on September 14th, we will celebrate the Elevation of the Life-giving Cross of Christ, yet again another reason for hope. May the God of hope, life, forgiveness and salvation continue to grant you and your families with "every good thing that comes from above."

In Christ,

Fr. Costa

"Ζωοδοχος Πηγη" #85 CHAPTER #6014
Spiritual Advisor: Rev. Fr. Constantine Valantasis

PHILOPTOCHOS NEWS

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to fine folks in our congregation for the many generous food and monetary donations offered to our various fund raisers and events and for all the hard work and time our devoted members tirelessly donate.

During this unprecedented time of fear and uncertainty, all events have been cancelled. Details of rescheduled and upcoming events will appear in future newsletters.

Thank you to all those who donated to Philoptochos in memory of Vasiliki "Bessie" Panopoulos. May her memory be eternal.

Reminder: Please let the church office know if you have a loved one in the hospital, nursing home, rehab center, house-bound, etc.

There will be no meetings until further notice.

We come to pray for those who are caring for the sick. It takes a kind and selfless heart to care for those who are sick, and so Father we pray for them. We pray that You would be their source of rest, their source of replenishment when weary, and their source of hope in such overwhelming times. Lord we know in that whosoever pours out shall be given back in proportion, so we pray blessings upon these caregivers. We also pray for their health that they may not fall ill. Father protect them with a hedge of protection against the germs of coronavirus and help those who are giving to be protected as they nurse others back to health.
Bless them Lord in Jesus's name, Amen!

Hospital Visitations

Even though hospitals may ask your religious affiliation, THE HOSPITALS DO NOT CALL THE CHURCH OR THE PRIEST to inform who is a patient. If you or a loved one is a patient at a hospital and would like Fr. Costa (or a Cleveland area priest if you are in The Cleveland Clinic or University Hospital) to give the Sacrament of Holy Unction for healing or Holy Communion, you must call the church office. Confidentiality laws, "HIPAA," make it impossible for us to get that information.
